A PROPHETIC SPEECH.

"Let the carpet-bagger, expelled finally from every state in the American union with the brand of disgrace stamped upon his brow, lift up his head once more and turn his face toward the setting sun. Utah beckons him to a new field of pillage and fresh pastures of pilfering. Let him pack his grip-sack and start. The Mormons have no friends and no one will come forward to defend or protect their rights. A returning board, from whose decisions there is no appeal, sent out from the American Congress baptized with the spirit of persecution and intolerance, will enter Utah to trample beneath their feet the rights of the people of that far off and ill-fated land. Mr. Speaker, I would not place a dog under the dominion of a set of carpet-baggers re-enforced by a returning board, unless I meant to have him robbed of his bone. A more grinding tyranny, a more absolute despotism was never established over any people."—Hon. John F. House, of Tennessee, in the House of Representatives, April 18, 1882.

GOVERNOR THOMAS' POSITION.

"Some Federal agency should be authorized to appoint the following county officers: Selectmen, clerks, recorders, superintendents of district schools and assessors."—Arthur L. Thomas.

THE PEOPLE'S POSITION.

"The basis of free government is the right of the people to govern themselves."—People's Party "Declaration of Principles."

COLONIZATION.

NEPHI, October 28, 1889.

DEAR SIR:—The bearer of this wants to vote, look after a job for him.

WHY IS IT?

If the Liberal ticket is a good and safe one why should the party organs and orators deem it necessary to pay so much attention to its defense? A good man does not have to all the time explain to the public that he is good. If he is honest he does not have to daily issue a certificate of good character. If he is trustworthy it is not essential that morning and night he shall exploit the fact to his neighbors and acquaintances. If he is capable it is not required of him that he shall loudly proclaim his ability. The people are keen observers and, as a rule, reliable judges of men. The community may be counted upon to very fairly estimate the characters and qualities of individual members thereof, and having set its judgment, the community cannot be readily turned in its opinion. It will take something more than unsupported accusations and charges based on partisan prejudice to reverse the popular estimate of a man. Day after day the active Liberals feel that they must defend their ticket, and explain that the candidates are "all right," and will show that they are proper persons for the respective offices to which they have been nominated.

What a contrast in this respect in the case of the People's ticket. No word in defense of the nominees has ever been uttered, because none was required. They didn't have to be defended, for the reason that they could not be attacked. Seeing their names nobody ever thought for a moment that the men were not the very ones for the offices. The reputations of these men we will know; everybody is familiar with their characters. The public judgment was expressed when the nominations were made, and everybody, recognizing the fitness of things and realizing that no fault could be found, heartily acquiesced.

Then, if the Liberal ticket represents the sentiments of the party, why is it that such strenuous efforts are put forth to keep the members of the party in line in support of the ticket? The refrain of the stump orators, ever since the nominating convention, has been "don't scratch the ticket!" The party organs plead and threaten by turn, to induce men to swallow the dose entire; fearing a bolt, the bolters are threatened with everything except personal violence, and we are not certain that some of them will not be subjected to that if they shall let it be known that they have scratched. Not only in the press and on the stump are these frantic efforts put forth to prevent disaffection, but active Liberals are on the street trying to "brace up" the many reputable citizens who are protesting against supporting this man or that one on the ticket.

Has anybody heard a hint regarding the scratching of a single name on the People's ticket? Not much! Every nominee has the hearty endorsement of every member of the party, and it will be seen when the votes are counted that there has been absolutely straight balloting. If individuals shall run ahead of the ticket, they certainly will, their increased vote will tell just how many Liberals have the courage to be independent in voting, and not how many Liberals are displeased with their own ticket.

YOUNG UTAH expects to stay here. That is why he is training on the People's ranks and will vote the People's ticket.

WORKINGMEN, ALWAYS bear in mind that the supremacy of the People's party has kept this all the time a workingmen's city.

FOR PEACE.

THE HERALD is glad that the central committee have agreed to certain stipulations regarding the election next Monday. What these are will be found by reference to another part of this issue. There was danger of trouble on election day. Party spirit has never before run so high. More bitterness of feeling exists to-day than ever before. There is also a desperate and ugly element in town, and it is being augmented daily by contributions from the line of the railway. The trains are dumping their loads of queer characters, and strange "ugly mugs" are seen in profusion on the principal streets and at the cheap hotels and low saloons. A good many of these fellows are expecting a row; they come with the intention of making trouble, and in the heat and excitement of election day it would take little to involve the crowds in very serious affrays.

The arrangements entered into by the committees are in the interest of peace and the maintenance of respect for the law, and the public should stand by and sustain the committees in this matter. It will be seen that the rights of individuals are to be well guarded by their respective parties. Each party is to have at the polls an equal number of challengers, and tally men; policemen and deputy marshals are to be present in sufficient force to preserve order; the hundred-foot rule is to be honestly observed, and arrests are not to be made until the parties have cast their votes and left the polls, thus avoiding difficulties which would be liable to result in general melee.

The "requests" we regard as quite as important as the agreements. These include suggestions that persons not engaged in working at the polls in the interest of their respective parties, will not congregate about the polling places; that men will at once retire after casting their votes, and that the law forbidding the sale of intoxicants on Sunday and election day be strictly observed.

The party leaders should impress it upon all their followers that the only occasion there is for their presence at the polls is to vote, and his ballot being cast the individual can do nothing more. His party representatives and the officials will see to the counting of the vote and the declaration of the result. The managers should also see to it that arrests be not made through spite or for the purpose of annoying. Unless there is good cause to believe that a man has voted illegally, and reason to think that his guilt can be established, he should not be taken into custody.

It is an honest election that we want, a peaceful election, and one in the result of which there will be confidence as to its legality. The People will do their share, and if the Liberals will be as honest and earnest next Monday will not bring disgrace upon the reputation of the city for peace, good order and proper respect for the law.

THERE should be no back door to saloons on Sunday and Monday.

YOUNG UTAH is all right. On this occasion he is entirely unanimous.

WORKINGMEN, do not for a moment forget that Liberal control of Salt Lake means an end to the laborer living in his own house. If that unhappy day should ever come he would be the victim of a landlord, for the poor wage-worker would be forced by the tax collector to sell his home, and be prevented by the speculator from buying another anywhere within the confines of the loved city.

GENTLEMEN REFLECT.

We ask the property-owning Liberals to run their eyes down the Liberal ticket, and in their own minds name the candidates for office to whom they would be willing to entrust the management and control of their private affairs. Look at the array, and then say how many of the nominees have achieved what would be called a success in life. If you are a banker, how many of the nominees would you feel like saying are equal to the responsibility of going into your bank and taking charge of any important department? If you are a merchant, who among the nominees would you place in charge of any branch of your business, and feel confident that the work would be well and satisfactorily done? If you were going to embark in a business enterprise requiring ability, progressive-ness, stability of character and integrity on the part of your employees and assistants, how much help could you gather from the Liberal ticket?

Please bear in mind we are saying not a word against any man whose name appears on that ticket. We are merely asking the bona fide citizens of Salt Lake who are classed as Liberals to do a little serious thinking for themselves. If after a careful canvass in their own minds these gentlemen come to the conclusion that the nominees, or a majority of them, are not such as they would care to intrust with their own affairs, we ask these property-owning Liberals to say if they are willing to place the affairs of this growing city under their control. Is the risk not greater than wise, right-thinking, care-taking men should incur? It is a reasonable supposition that the council chosen next Monday will have the disposal of fully $300,000 of the public money during the two years' term. Have the nominees ever shown by anything they have done capacity for handling and wisely expending such a vast sum of money? During the coming two years Salt Lake will achieve more in the way of growth and development than she has achieved in any previous eight years of her history. Are the Liberal candidates for office fit persons to guide and direct affairs during this period of unexampled growth and progress?

Frankly, if there were ever a time in the life of this city when safe men should be at the helm, when men of ability, of stability, of trustworthiness and of thorough responsibility should be in charge, is that time not now? Recklessness, extravagance, incompetence will work incalculable harm just now, and bring upon the city bad results from which we cannot recover in a decade.

Think of these things, you Liberals who are permanently interested in Salt Lake, and let the conclusions formed in your own minds control you at the polls next Monday.

EVEN ENTHUSIASTIC Liberals now admit privately that two of their candidates will be buried out of sight next Monday, and that Liberals will contribute much to the funerals.

THE STRAGGLERS from the graders' camps and sidings are strangers in Salt Lake, but instinct leads them to the cheap and disreputable saloons.

SALT LAKE work for P. V. workmen will doubtless appear on a transparency in the next Liberal parade. The graders demand recognition.

WE DON'T believe there is anybody in this city, no matter what his politics or religion, who thinks for a moment that Mayor ARMSTRONG and Marshal SOLOMON have been guilty of any wrong-doing in connection with the use of the city money. It is true, a grand jury indicted the gentleman, but everybody understood why that was done. In our opinion the investigation by the council asked for by the officials, and which has just been completed, was not at all necessary, for the presentment referred to carried not even a suspicion of guilt to the minds of the great masses of this city. However, the gentlemen seemed to desire an investigation by the council, hence the inquiry was undertaken with the result announced in THE HERALD on Wednesday. The investigation was full and thorough, the facts of the alleged crookedness being all laid before the council, and the necessary consequence was a unanimous vote exonerating the mayor and marshal from the charge of wrong-doing.

GREAT

Muslin Underwear Sale!

Commencing Monday, February 3.

This sale will consist of Four Grand Lots of over 100 dozen each, placed upon four separate piles on our middle counters on both sides of the store.

First Lot of 1,250 Pieces, at 25c. a Piece,

Consists of Tucked Lace and Embroidery-Trimmed Chemise, Skirts, Drawers and Corset Covers, all made of good muslin. This lot also includes Infants' Long and Short Cambric Slips, neatly trimmed, and a lot of Children's Jean Corset Waists. These goods are made up in styles for which our underwear is noted.

Nothing Like it has ever Before Been Offered Here at 25c.

Second Lot of about 1,250 Pieces, at 50c.

Made of "Fruit of the Loom" Muslin and cambric, and consists of elaborately-trimmed Night Dresses, Skirts, Chemise, Drawers and Corset Covers, in Torchon Lace and Embroidery. This lot includes a splendid line of Children's Trimmed Long and Short Cambric Dresses. Every garment in this lot is a Great Bargain; the usual prices are from 75c. to 90c.

They Cannot be Duplicated This Season.

Third Lot of about 1,000 Pieces, at 75c.

This is an extraordinary lot of garments. They are all regular stock, carefully made of excellent materials and as perfect and desirable in every respect as if sold at our regular prices. This lot also consists of Night Gowns, Chemise, Skirts, Drawers, Corset Covers, Infants' Slips and Children's Short Dresses. We consider them, without exception,

The Greatest Bargains Ever Offered in this city.

Fourth Lot of about 750 Pieces, at $1.00.

Beautiful Lace and Embroidery-Trimmed Night Dresses, Chemise, Skirts, Drawers, Corset Covers, Infants' Slips, Children's Short Dresses, all made up in the very newest designs. They will compare very favorably with anything ever before offered at $1.25 and $1.50.

We take particular pleasure in calling attention to the fact that this is not the usual trashy underwear which is offered at cheap sales. Every piece will bear inspection. Remember, this will be
